HELP US GROW THE BYRD ALUMNI NETWORK!

Thank you to our C.E. Byrd Alumni Association Members and Donors. We thank you for your donations, for being current on your dues this year and/or being a Lifetime Member! Your commitment to Byrd is felt; it's the reason we can continue to strengthen campus life, support staff and students, enhance facilities, and stay connected to keep our legacy alive. Your generousity makes a lasting impact on the next generation of Yellow Jackets. Thank you!

We are asking for your help.

There are still many Byrd alumni who are not yet connected or involved. The most effective way to reach them isn't through emails or mailers; it's through you! If you've enjoyed staying connected to Byrd, we encourage you to reach out to a few classmates or friends and invite them to get involved. A simple message from someone they know goes a long way.

INVITE SOMEONE TO JOIN OR RECONNECT:

As always, when planning your class reunions, please don't hesitate to call or email us for your class list. Our database allows us to keep the most up-to-date info on our alumni. Call or text our Alumni phone anytime, 318-286-7890 and you can email me here for your class list. byrdhighalumni@gmail.com

LETTER FROM OUR ALUMNI PRESIDENT

As we move through what has been a really exciting year for Byrd, I want to take a minute to say thank you. Everything we've been able to do this year, from student support to facility improvements, comes back to the generosity and involvement of our alumni. We simply couldn't do it without you.

You'll probably notice right away that this newsletter looks a little different. We made a conscious decision to move toward more of a magazine-style format. The goal is simple: tell the Byrd story better. There are so many great things happening with our students, teachers, and programs that we want to do a better job of highlighting everything.

We are so happy to have had the chance to recognize some truly outstanding teachers and students. In addition, we'll be awarding eleven scholarships; supporting the next generation of Yellow Jackets will always be the core of our mission.

Of course, the biggest project this year was the new weight room. Thanks to your support, we raised over $175,000 to make this happen. It's already having a real impact on our student-athletes, and it's something everyone connected to Byrd can be proud of.

We've also made an effort to stay connected with current and incoming students in many important ways. We welcomed our next freshman class with Byrd t-shirts and created a new promotional video that has been shared with parents who are considering where to send their kids to high school. These early touchpoints are crucial in maintaining Jacket Pride.

A Time of Transition at Byrd

This year also brings an important transition for the school. Mr. Badgley's retirement marks the end of a significant chapter at Byrd. His leadership and steady presence have meant a great deal to this school and to so many families over the years. We're grateful for everything he's done and wish him nothing but the best in retirement.

At the same time, we're excited to welcome a fellow Byrd graduate, Jana Panos as Byrd's next principal. She's stepping into a role built on years of strong leadership and tradition, and we're looking forward to the energy and direction she'll bring as Byrd continues to move forward.

Looking ahead, we've got several opportunities to get together as an alumni community. Our golf tournament on June 5th will be an important fundraiser this summer, and we're planning a tailgate for the homecoming game this fall. We'd love to see you at both.

We also have Give for Good coming up on May 5th. This is a 24 hour, community wide online giving event that has become one of our most important fundraisers. This helps us support key initiatives at Byrd. Class of 1996 has topped the podium over the last two years. Who is going to knock them off? Rally your classmates, spread the word, and let's see who will show up in a big way!

As we start planning for next year, one of our main priorities will be to make a meaningful investment in a specific academic department. We'll have more details soon, and we hope you'll be a part of it.

Thanks again for everything you do for Byrd. There's tremendous momentum right now, and it's because of this alumni community.

Kenneth Favrot
C.E. Byrd Alumni Association President

LETTER FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Well, Jackets, it's time to say good-bye. Forty years is a long time but it seems like yesterday when Lynne Fitzgerald took a chance on me. Never in my wildest dreams did I ever think I would end up as the principal of this wonderful school that so many of us love so much.

What great memories I have of my teaching and coaching years. It was here that I got to know so many students and parents. It's rewarding every time I talk with one of my former students or players and see that they are doing well, raising families, and chasing their dreams! As a coach, I'll never forget the win over Barbe in 1995 and a trip to the softball state championships.

While 9/11 was certainly a tragedy, I will always be proud of my students and how they handled this. I taught all I could to try and give them a perspective of something they had never experienced. I'm proud of how our school displayed our patriotism and support in the days that followed. Byrd stood proud with those two giant American flags on the front of our school.

Our teachers and staff are the best. I've made many friends and enjoyed working shoulder to shoulder with so many wonderful people. Surprising teachers who have won Teacher of the Year was a treat for me. Seeing their excitement and the joy of their students is a true reward. Many of you will remember an academic celebration assembly that turned out to be a recognition assembly for a very unsuspecting Milken Award Winner. I had to create a big fib to pull that one off.

I've had the opportunity to work with some wonderful counselors and administrators. They are great people each and every one; I'm eternally grateful for their support. There aren't many places in Louisiana that we didn't travel for academic competions, such as Quiz Bowl, Literally Rally, and Artbreak. We traveled the state for athletic events, including state championship games in football, baseball, soccer and golf state championships. I even got one of the state championship medals when two of our ladies won the doubles state championship in tennis!

Byrd has been my life for the past 40 years. All three of my children began "attending" Byrd long before they were students. They spent many hours working on the football and softball fields, attending games, travelling to basketball state championships and eventually graduating from here. I'm proud of them for putting up with their dad's work!

In 2009 I married my high school sweetheart and gained a wonderful step-daughter. Our wedding was truly a Byrd event. We were surrounded by our families and friends; the Byrd Family was there also. I cherish the memories from that wonderful night.

The planning and year long celebration of the Byrd Centennial was an extraordinary event, a memory that will last a lifetime. For me, seeing former students, softball players, former faculty, staff and my own 1976 classmates was truly remarkable. I even managed to sing along with Jordan Davis as he was gracious enough to sing our alma mater at the Hall of Fame Inductions.

I want to thank the many people, students, faculty, alumni and parents for all their support over the years. No one person can make good things happen without the kind of support we have here at Byrd.

Last, I wish Mrs. Panos well and ask that each and everyone of you give her the support that you have given to me.

So Long Jackets!

"GOODBYE, JACKETS"

PRINCIPAL BADGLEY SAYS FAREWELL TO THE CITY OF BYRD

By: Annabelle Callicoatte and Crawford Jones
Current Byrd Freshmen

Byrd is on the precipice of a new era, one that will alter the face of the school forever. After many years of being the face and leader of C.E. Byrd, beloved principal, Jerry Badgley, has announced his retirement.

Upon hearing the news, junior Bay Moss expressed her thoughts: "It's sad for sure. He has put forth many years of hard work and dedication towards Byrd, and has truly made it a better place. He will be missed." This sentiment has rung out across the school and the Byrd community in recent months.

For Mr. Badgley, retiring was a big jump, since he had served so many years at Byrd. He went from substitute teaching, to full-time teaching and coaching, to assistant principal, and lastly, to principal. He has been such a key feature on Byrd's campus for so long that taking the retirement plunge didn't come easily.

Uncertain of his future, Mr. Badgley explained that he "originally planned to retire last year," but decided he wasn't "mentally ready to retire" at that time. Byrd's Centennial celebration took center stage that year, and Badgley felt that he needed to see the school well off into its second century before saying "goodbye."

Mr. Badgley is leaving a legacy that will continue to inspire everyone. He has kept traditions alive, supported athletics, arts, academics, and has supported students since day one. As he reflects on the mark he leaves behind, he hopes his legacy is simple: "I hope I left it a little better than how I found it, and that Byrd continues the traditions people value." Even in closing out his career, he remains characteristically humble, saying that he hopes "if nothing else, I didn't mess it up."

While the Byrd community will miss Mr. Badgley, he's looking forward to enjoying the next chapter of his life. He enjoys hunting, spending time at his property in Texas, and watching his grandchildren grow up. He shares about how he loves coin shows. Now that he is retired and has a more flexible schedule, he eagerly expressed, "I hope my wife can come with me to some coin shows."

His wife, Margaret Badgley, is no stranger to The City of Byrd. She attended Byrd alongside Mr. Badgley, where the two met and fell in love. Mrs. Badgley recounted "I met Jerry when I was a Sophomore and he was a Junior! He was a baseball player and on the Gusher staff." Since their high school years, they truly have made an impact on the Byrd community, but now they want to focus more on themselves. They "plan to spend more time together"as they step into this new chapter, and look forward to embracing the simple joys of life together. Maragaret has been an integral part of Mr. Badgley's journey by supporting him with strength and kindness. The two are cherished by everyone who knows them. They hope to continue a legacy of warmth and connection with the Byrd community for many years to come.

Even though Mr. Badgley is stepping down as principal, he isn't stepping away from Byrd. He still plans on being a part of the alumni association and being an active supporter of all things Purple and Gold.

As Byrd prepares for this transition, Mr. Badgley has stated his commitment to ensuring it is a seamless one. He is planning on staying in town and helping Mrs. Panos step into the position of principal, and mentoring her throughout the next few years. He believes that Mrs. Panos will be a great new principal and is glad that "she's got the same kind of support from staff like when [he] first came in." Mr. Badgley will be working through July to help transition Mrs. Panos into her new role.

Reflecting on his past years, Mr. Badgley shared some of his favorite memories. He mentioned several graduation memories that filled him with pride and hope. He reminisced on meeting his wife in the halls of The City. The memories that seemed to stand out the most, were from his coaching years. In his own words he says, "There's been a lot of memories and I had a lot of favorite memories, you know fond memories from when I was coaching. I really enjoyed these years. You get to know the kids better than even in the classroom."

Looking forward to upcoming events, Mr. Badgley has shared that he is excited for his last junior ring ceremony as Principal. He mentioned that this moment represents more than just a tradition; it's a milestone he's eager to share with this year's 11th grade class. The anticipation is building, and his enthusiasm has already set a positive tone for the days ahead.

Mr. Badgley predicts the Byrd community will continue to thrive under Mrs. Panos's leadership. The City of Byrd is grateful for his many years of dedicated service. Mr. Badgley also expressed his gratitude for the relationships he's built over the years and the support he's received from students, staff, and families. Though his role is changing, his commitment to Byrd remains the same, and he looks forward to contributing in new ways while watching the school continue to grow. Closing out this chapter of his life, Mr. Badgley's final message to all is:

"Goodbye, Jackets. I wish you all the best.

Continue to make me proud."

DID SOMEONE SAY NEW PRINCIPAL?

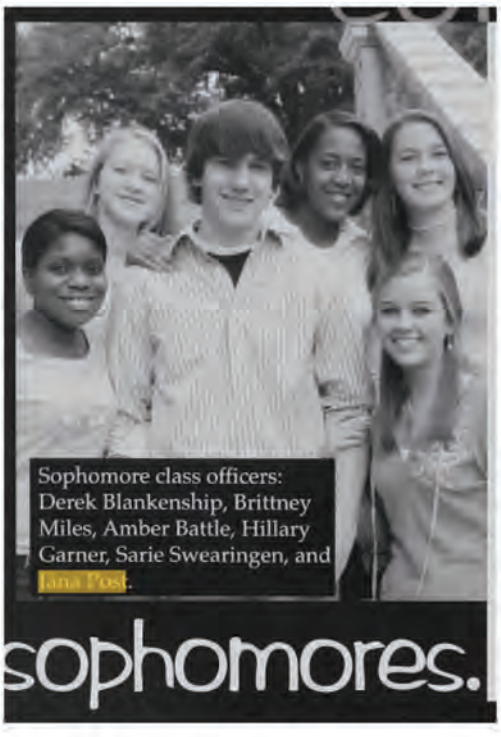
BYRD ALUMNA TO LEAD STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF INTO THE FUTURE.

By: Ella Hoffman
Current Byrd Freshman

On Wednesday, March 4th, Caddo Schools Superintendent Keith Burton announced that Byrd's own Jana Panos will be the new principal heading into the 2026-2027 school year. A graduate of Byrd, Mrs. Panos has served as a teacher and administrator for the past 13 years. Panos is currently the Assistant Principal of Instruction, and in 2022, Caddo Parish Public Schools named her the district High School Teacher of the Year. Byrd is excited to follow one of its own alumni into its future endeavors.

Mrs. Panos submitted an application to become the new principal early in February 2026. The waiting process was stressful but fortunately she soon found out that she would interview for the position a week before spring break. There were several interviews after that. Panos said the process was stressful but that this was something she anticipated. After one of many interviews, she got called to come back later the same day to discuss her specific plans for the future of Byrd. She said that she and the superintendent agreed on a similar vision for the school, and finally he offered her the position. Before she even finished signing the papers, her mentor and current principal, Mr. Badgley, had already eagerly announced the exciting news to all of the staff and students at Byrd.

Mrs. Panos said, "I feel honored and excited to become the new principal at Byrd." Badgley praised her character: "her leadership style is characterized by a strong, positive school environment." Panos asserts that, "I am a strong believer of listening to others opinions before making any big changes." Panos also hopes that with her new position that the transition will be smooth. Her plan is to keep all of the traditions from the past 100 years that makes Byrd what it is, but continuing on the path of exponential growth. Mrs.



Panos feels confident in her abilities because of the mentorship Mr. Badgley has instilled in her all of these years. As the new principal, Mrs. Panos hopes Mr. Badgley will stay in Shreveport to aid her as she steps into her new leadership position. Ultimately, she believes she is "prepared and ready to start the 26'-27' school year as principal of C.E. Byrd High School."

In the 'City' both students and teachers express their hopes of the new era of leadership. Students Cathrine Payne and Julia Price who are currently juniors hope "Mrs. Panos will bring more attention towards students and provide better education." They also believe she should pursue the idea of additional parking for student drivers. Other students like Ford Owen, another junior, "hope[s] Mrs. Panos can change the cleanliness of the school". Finally, Bennett Lewis an ambitious 11th grader hopes Fridays can be virtual days, "almost like a mental health day that students can look forward to once a week." While free-day Fridays might not be on the table, getting these student opinions may encourage Mrs. Panos to make some bigger and better changes for Byrd.

Several teachers wonder if Mrs. Panos will make changes for the upcoming school years. Teachers like Mrs. Smith, hope the student participation will increase. Also she hopes that the school spirit will continue on as strong as ever. Mr. McDade doesn't wish for many big changes, but is certain that Mrs. Panos will carry on Byrd's commitment of excellence in sports and academics, and for [her] to continue what Mr. Badgley has left. He also believes Mrs. Panos' youth will help bring Byrd into the 21st century because of her "fresh voice with new ideas."

The anticipation is high, and the consensus agrees: Mrs. Panos is seen as the perfect fit to lead Byrd into its prosperous future. Teachers, students, and Alumni are comforted by the idea of a Byrd family member leading the community into the years to come.

ACADEMIC HIGHLIGHTS

THE HIVE IS BUZZING: LEADERSHIP, LEARNING, AND YELLOW JACKET PRIDE

At C.E. Byrd High School, the spirit of the Yellow Jackets continues to shine both inside and outside the classroom. From the courtroom to the nation's capital and even the bright lights of New York City our students are representing Byrd with excellence, determination, and pride.

Over Spring Break, Byrd's Mock Trial team showcased their talent and dedication at the Regional Mock Trial Competition held at the Tom Stagg United States Courthouse. Our student attorneys and witnesses worked tirelessly to prepare their cases, delivering arguments before real-life legal professionals. Their hard work paid off in more ways than one; they gained invaluable, real-world experience that will serve them well in future careers. A special thank you goes to sponsor Steven Smith and Attorney Coach Kris Jackson for their continued commitment to the success of Byrd's Mock Trial program.

Meanwhile, several of Byrd's outstanding student publications—Gusher, High Life, and KByrd— headed to New York City to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference.

Leadership is also taking center stage for Byrd's Student Council. Twelve dedicated members, along with their adviser April Carberry, traveled to Washington, D.C., to attend the LEAD Conference, a national gathering of student leaders. These Yellow Jackets are eager to grow their leadership skills, connect with peers from across the country, and experience the rich history of our nation's capital.

Back at home, we are proud to celebrate the accomplishments of Student Council President Tripp Lowry, who has been named a recipient of the National Association of Student Council Scholarship, supported by the Allstate Foundation. This prestigious recognition highlights Tripp's exceptional leadership, service, and commitment to amplifying student voice.

As if that weren't enough, Byrd's Student Council has also earned national recognition as a 2026 National Gold Council of Excellence. This distinguished honor reflects the group's dedication to leadership, service, and making a meaningful impact on campus and the community through leadership and service.

From academic competitions to national conferences, our Yellow Jackets continue to lead, achieve, and inspire. The Hive is alive with momentum, and the future has never looked brighter at C.E. Byrd High School.

Seniors Tripp Lowry, Duncan Rowe and Audrey Welch are spending the week in Washington, D.C. as the result of winning the Colonial Dames Essay Contest this past school year. They are participating in a mock student congress with other high school students from across the United States. They even met with Speaker of the House Mike Johnson and Senator Bill Cassidy. We are proud of these accomplished students, and we are so thankful for the amazing faculty members who have poured into these students!

Congratulations to Tripp Lowry!

who has been named the 2025-2026 C. E. Byrd High School Student of the Year! Tripp is the perfect representation of what it means to be a Jacket, and we couldn't be prouder to have him represent The City! Way to go, Tripp!

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

CELEBRATING THE HEART OF THE HIVE: HONORING OUR OUTSTANDING FACULTY & STAFF

At C.E. Byrd High School, the strength of the Hive lies in the people who pour their passion, time, and energy into shaping the lives of our students each and every day. This year, we are proud to spotlight the incredible educators and staff members who continue to make Byrd such a special place.

Leading the way is an extraordinary achievement by one of our own Mrs. Monica Speyrer, who has been named Caddo Parish Teacher of the Year. For the past 16 years, Mrs. Speyrer has gone above and beyond for her students, bringing both global perspectives and local connections into her classroom. Whether teaching AP Human Geography, leading Debate, or guiding students through Youth & Government, her enthusiasm and dedication are unmatched. We are incredibly grateful for her impact and wish her continued success as she advances to the state level of competition. The entire Hive is cheering her on!

We also proudly recognize John Lary, whose influence reaches far beyond the classroom. As a recipient of the prestigious Milken Educator Award, he was invited to participate in the grand opening of the Milken Center for Advancing the American Dream in Washington, D.C., where he is featured in the center's education exhibit. This remarkable honor reflects not only his commitment to excellence in education but also brings recognition to C.E. Byrd High School and the Shreveport community as a whole.

In athletics, Coach Meredith Duncan continues to set the standard for excellence. Her leadership and dedication to Byrd's golf program have earned her national recognition as one of the top high school coaches in the country. This incredible honor is a testament to her hard work, passion, and the lasting impact she has on her student-athletes. The entire Byrd community and "The City" stands proudly behind her.

Behind the scenes, the heartbeat of our daily routine can be found in "The Café," where familiar, friendly faces have welcomed generations of Yellow Jackets. For over 35 years, the cafeteria staff led by Mrs. Green have been a constant source of warmth and care, often among the first to arrive each day to ensure students are ready to learn with a good meal. Their dedication does not go unnoticed, and we are truly thankful for the role they play in our school family.

Finally, a heartfelt thank you goes out to everyone who made this year's Teacher Appreciation Week such a memorable celebration. Under the leadership of chair Sara Greer and the incredible PTSA, our faculty and staff were treated to a full week of thoughtful gestures from daily breakfasts and lunches to a special visit from Simply Chic for a little midweek shopping. The outpouring of support from parents, Astra, Key Club, and NHS made the week truly special. In true Byrd fashion, the generosity didn't stop there, as leftover food was donated to the Shreveport/Bossier Rescue Mission an act that reflects the giving spirit of our Hive.

From the classroom to the cafeteria, from the golf course to the national stage, Byrd's faculty and staff continue to inspire, lead, and make a difference. They are, without a doubt, the heart of the Hive.

MARGARET COX GOES TO THE WHITE HOUSE!

We are proud to recognize C.E. Byrd High School art teacher Margaret Cox for an extraordinary achievement—being selected to help decorate the White House for Christmas 2025. Contributing to the holiday theme, "Home Is Where the Heart Is," Mrs. Cox played a role in bringing the vision to life throughout several historic rooms, including the State Dining Room, Red Room, China Room, Library, Diplomatic Reception Room, and Vermeil Room. From intricate garland work to creative design elements, her talent and dedication were on full display at one of the nation's most iconic homes. This once-in-a-lifetime honor reflects not only her artistic excellence, but also the pride and spirit of the Byrd community.
